A Word to the Wise

While people are complaining of dull times and no money, we are busy showing every CASH Customer who comes into our establishment, that the purchasing power of his dollar is greater with us than elsewhere. We believe that every purchaser who buys a good article cheap, gets into a good humor with himself, and by natural process, with his neighbors also; which goes a long way to relieve the oppressive feelings of dull times. To feel pleased with ourselves and one another no better opportunity offers than to trade at the Grocery Store of

THURSTON'S LAW

In the Cupid habeas corpus case L. A. Thurston in his brief stated:

"In the case at bar the President having exercised his discretion, instituted a Military Commission; directed it to try such case, and such Military Commission having, in pursuance of such order, exercised such jurisdiction and delivered judgment in such case, such judgment much stand and cannot be reviewed by this Court.

The Petitioner's contention that "this Court has the power to go behind the record and inquire into and consider whether or not the trial of this Petitioner by the Military Commission was essential to public safety" is directly destructive of the principles laid down concerning the exclusiveness of Executive Discretion and heretofore adopted by this Court."

Now, all that remains is for the President and his Cabinet to say everything is in our "executive discretion." Then, nobody—not even THE INDEPENDENT—could criticize or object, and "the best Government Hawaii ever had" would soon be like the beggar on horseback—it would go to the devil. As things stand now—granted a nervous President and the countersignature of an equally nervous Cabinet—the whole country can be put under a state of martial law in which no one—citizen or foreign subject—can have any rights which cannot be invaded or absolutely taken away without redress, by order of the President or his subordinates. All lies in his discretion. And that cannot, according to Mr. Thurston, be reviewed by the Supreme or any other Court. Siberia is not so bad as the probable picture this state of affairs conjures up.
The powers of the President of the Hawaiian Republic seem to be even more absolute than those ascribed to the Czar if Thurston's opinions are correct. And the Supreme Court has sustained them. Is this the result of our boasted republicanism?
That we have invested a President with more despotic powers than any monarch ever had in Hawaii since the days of Kamehameha I! And the President stays there for six years. And longer if eight members of the Senate cannot be found to agree on his successor. And this is the immaculate Thurston's law when he is paid to hold a brief for the other side. Did his partner suggest it?

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars.
The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.

An exclusive franchise does not fall to the lot of everybody. But L.
B. Kerr assures his patrons that he has obtained one that will be of the utmost benefit to purchasers in all departments. The Suitings and Trousers he is offering to the gentlemen this week are proof positive that, they can buy a single yard at wholesale prices.
